Course content "Social Europe Days - We and the SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals)" is an international course in a blended learning format. It is created collaboratively by 10 European Institutes of Higher Education. At Hochschule München University of Applied Sciences students from three different study programs will participate: BA Social Work, BA Management of Social Innovation, BA Social Work (BASA-online). Students from our partner universities are enrolled in programs such as public administration, human resource management, labour law, gender studies, or social policy. The course will start with an Online-Ramp-Up 20.04.2022, 10.00-17.00 online, then have an excursion to Berlin from 16.05.2022 -19.05.2022 (including travelling times) and an Online-Wrap-Up 24.05.2022.

We expect ca. 80-120 participants from Bremen (Germany), Groningen (The Netherlands), Hasselt (Belgium), Leuven (Belgium), Málaga (Spain), Malta, Munich (Germany), Salzburg (Austria), Sibiu (Romania) , Tallinn (Estonia), and Zurich (Switzerland). Working language is English. More important than your actual language skills are, however, an open mindset and an active, entrepreneurial mindset to make this international experience a success.
