Courses in English
Course Description

Department 07 Computer Science and Mathematics

Course title Courses accompanying the Internship: Information Systems

Hours per week (SWS) 3

Number of ECTS credits 3

Course objective
Learning Objectives
* to gain competences on project management and team work based on a real live project for information systems
* to gain an understanding of the rationale underlying formal project management
* to reflect on experiences gained in the internship on information systems and project management

Prerequisites Basic knowledge of information systems and management

Recommended reading Literature on selected topics will be announced during the course.

Teaching methods Competence Profile (Content and Methods)
* Take a global and multicultural perspective to project management
* Understand and manage the interplay between people, technologies and organizations that underlies the use of information systems and its implementation by means of project management
* Understand the impact of social, economic, legal, and ethical issues on information systems and project management

Assessment methods

Language of instruction English

Name of lecturer Prof. Dr. Gordon M. Hunter

Email ghunter@uleth.ca

Link

Course content Content and Methods
* Real live project regarding information systems
* Reflection and exchange on internship

Remarks