GRADUATE

MA IN TOURISM MANAGEMENT
This leading-edge graduate program is the first of its kind in Canada’s tourism and hospitality education system. It responds to the worldwide demand for tourism and hospitality leaders to build and sustain a competitive advantage in the global tourism market. Timely and relevant program content has been designed in collaboration with industry experts, students, faculty and education partners. Students gain skills in destination development, leadership, sustainability and global tourism.

Admission Requirements: Bachelor/Bakkalaureus degree with a “B” average (Good/Gut) and a minimum of 2 years of work experience.
BEFORE YOU APPLY

If you are interested in studying at Royal Roads University you should first contact your exchange coordinator at your home university to discuss the options available for exchange.

Before applying, you and the exchange coordinator should look at the program information on the RRU website, the program schedules and the program specific admission requirements* to determine how the exchange opportunity can fit in with your study plans.

*Exchange applicants are not required to submit letters of reference in order to be eligible for exchange.

Next, the exchange coordinator can then officially nominate you for exchange by contacting international@royalroads.ca.

Plan to complete your application package at least 4 months prior to your desired start date to allow for sufficient time for application processing and adjudication, for obtaining a visa/study permit (if required) and for preparing to study abroad. Be sure to check the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website, for visa/study permit processing times and requirements.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

English is the primary language of instruction and communication in all programs at Royal Roads University. All students whose first language is not English must meet RRU’s English language proficiency requirements. For more information please see: http://www.royalroads.ca/prospective-students/english-language-requirements

If you are not a native English speaker and have not taken one of the approved English Language Proficiency test (IELTS/TOEFL) recently you may need to arrange to take the test as soon as possible.

PREPARE YOUR SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

PREPARE YOUR DETAILED RESUME

A detailed, or structured, resume is one that provides a comprehensive and professional profile. We are interested in knowing where you have worked, for how long, and what your responsibilities were for each positions held. Provide as much information as possible. Your detailed resume should include the following:

Name, address, phone number and email address
Education: List all post-secondary education, degrees, diplomas, and certificates you have achieved.
Work Experience: Please include name of organization, each position held, length of service (months & years employed) and whether it was part-time or full-time work, and a brief description of duties related to each position.
Training and Professional Development: List career related training and professional development programs completed with the past five years. Include the source of training, and the duration and year completed. List other training and personal development programs not already identified.
Voluntary/Unpaid Work Experience/Internships: List and describe any voluntary/unpaid post-secondary employment and/or community service experience. Please include name of organization, length of service and a brief description of duties.
Information Technology Training and Experience: Briefly describe your level of training and experience in the use of information technology including computers, software and telecommunications networks as tools for business, education, teaching and personal use.
Professional Memberships/Affiliations: List memberships and positions you hold/have held in professional associations, service clubs, community or volunteer sector.
International or Intercultural Experience: list applicable travel, work, education, or volunteer experience.
*And any other relevant information.
WRITE YOUR STATEMENT OF INTENT
The Statement of Intent should consist of (but is not limited to) a two to three page essay that must address the following four questions and must be written in your own words:

- What influenced your decision to apply to Royal Roads University?
- Why is this exchange opportunity appropriate for you?
- What do you hope to contribute to the program and the university?
- In 5-10 years, how do you anticipate this opportunity will add value?

If there is any other information that you feel might be of interest or relevant to your application, please include it in this statement.

OBTAIN OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS FROM YOUR HOME UNIVERSITY
At the time of application you may submit unofficial, scanned copies of academic transcripts, but official copies will need to be received by RRU prior to starting your studies. To be official, transcripts must be submitted in the original sealed envelope from the issuing institution.

If your academic documents are in a language other than English you must submit the official documents in the original language as well as notarized literal English translations.

SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION
Once you have your supporting documents prepared, fill out the Application for Exchange form and have your exchange coordinator submit it along with your supporting documents to: international@royalroads.ca
