The departments imbue their students with vision, creativeness and a sense of shared responsibility as an ideal preparation for making a difference in their chosen professions and within society. Close contacts to companies at the high-tech location of Munich allow students to obtain practical experience during their studies. And last but not least: Munich’s attractive cultural and leisure opportunities offer plenty of variety.

The HM Hochschule München University of Applied Sciences is Bavaria’s largest institute of higher education in this field. Over 80 attractive and forward-looking degree courses lay the foundation for successful careers. Besides specialist skills, the university promotes sustainable and entrepreneurial mindsets and actions, as well as international and intercultural experiences, such as through stays abroad.
What is Communication of Science, Technology and Innovation?

- Communication of complex technologies, innovations, and research in applied sciences
- Master of Engineering
- Consecutive, part-time degree programme for working professionals
- 5 semesters
- Lectures held evenings, weekends, online and one week of in-classroom teaching per semester
- Bilingual teaching (German and English)
- Focuses on practical and transferable skills
- Study at one of the best universities for applied sciences (UAS7)
- Intensive collaboration with partner companies and organizations

What do I need to apply?

- A first degree comprising at least 180 ECTS credits
- 6 months’ relevant work experience (this can be acquired during the first year of study if necessary)
- Fundamental university-level knowledge of STEM subjects as well as business administration, economics, organizational psychology or media law, as well as journalism or communication sciences, as well as design, photo or video production
- German language ability at level C1

What does it cost?

- Course fee: approx. EUR 2,000 per semester
- Fees are 100% tax deductible
- Educational leave possible
- Plus Student Travel Card Fee (EUR 72) and Students’ Union basic contribution (EUR 75)

Start: 1 October 2022
Application: May to 15 July 2022