

MASTER'S PROGRAMME (M.A.)

"INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION AND COOPERATION"

Hochschule München – Munich University of Applied Sciences
Fakultät für Studium Generale und Interdisziplinäre Studien
Faculty of General and Interdisciplinary Studies
Dachauer Str. 100a
80636 München
Germany

AIMS OF THE PROGRAMME

In this master's programme you will...

- ... improve your intercultural communication skills.
- ... obtain a deeper understanding of the problems and possibilities of intercultural communication and international cooperation.
- ... become aware of relations among and problems of important national and regional cultures, and
- ... improve your social and communicative skills in general day-to-day and intercultural contacts.

Extracts from our study programme

- basic lecture 'Intercultural Communication and Cooperation'
- intercultural philosophy
- globalisation: economy and politics
- intercultural conversation analysis research
- cultural studies: theory and practice
- regional studies: Maghreb countries, Islamic countries, USA, Turkey, China, Japan, Latin America, ...
- international human resource development
- international sales management
- European industrial law
- development cooperation and international organisations

GENERAL INFORMATION

admission requirements

Applicants must hold a diploma or bachelor's degree (or equivalent) and at least one year of professional experience.

Applicants whose first language is other than German and who have not graduated from a university in a German-speaking country need to provide a DSH-Test level 2 or the equivalent. Those whose first language is other than English need to provide a TOEFL-Test or the equivalent. You may also do an internal test in our office.

course duration

The course starts in October and lasts 5 semesters (2.5 years). Lectures are offered during the week in the evenings and / or in weekend blocks.

academic degree and tuition

After successfully completing the Master's Programme you will be awarded a Master of Arts degree (M.A.).

Currently, the programme's tuition is 2,400 € per semester. Munich universities charge an additional administrative fee of 112 € per semester for student services and public transportation. Financial aid can be provided by the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service). For more information, see www.daad.de .

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

The application deadline is July 15th each year. All original documents must be submitted to:

Hochschule München
Fakultät für Studium Generale und Interdisziplinäre Studien
Robert Simek / Gerda Walter
Room T 3.006
Dachauer Str. 100a
80636 München

Applicants should include the following required documents with their application:

- completed application form ("Zulassungsantrag"), which is available on www.hm.edu or upon request by mail
- Curriculum Vitae
- certified copy of bachelor's or diploma degree
- proof of professional experience after studies
- proof of German and / or English proficiency test

After all documents are submitted, applicants will be invited to an interview for the staff to meet the candidates and the latter to get to know the staff. Furthermore, we can provide more information about our programme and answer still open questions. Acceptance notification will be sent out after the interviews.

For additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us by phone or by mail or visit our website on www.hm.edu/ikk .

CONTACT

Information and Organisation

Ms Gerda Walter

E-mail gerda.walter@hm.edu
Telephone +49 89 1265 4307

Mr Robert Simek

E-mail robert.simek@hm.edu
Telephone +49 89 1265 4308

Head of Master's Programme

Prof. Dr. Katharina von Helholt

E-mail von-helm@hm.edu
Telephone +49 89 1265 4335

Internet

Master's Programme www.hm.edu/ikk

Hochschule München www.hm.edu

